Week 3.11 Currency in America

Canada lacks unity in color scheme and balance of graphic elements.

Mexico has a pleasant color scheme of the spectrum from red to blue, and uses a very unique typeface. Nice contrast between background patterns and foreground elements.

Colombia reminds me of Belgium and Yugoslavia.

Suriname is very colorful, though not discordantly. It makes use of many different types of patterns in a gridded background, overlaid with elements.