Week 3.4 Images of architecture

Image Goals
Images on the currency should espouse values common to all of humanity, and yet retain power and personal, cultural meaning. They can't be offensive to the cultural values of any nation, and they must be timeless; applicable throughout humanity’s history and diverse habitats.

Architecture
Direct ripoff of the Euro. Downsides are that construction pollutes the environment, and is contrary to some beliefs (those of Native Americans).