Week 3.14 Currency in Europe

Belgium is very grid-oriented and makes nice use of negative space. But this makes it look more like a post-card or a flyer than currency. It lacks officiality.

Yugoslavia is similar to Belgium.

Russia seems disorderly and lacks unity.

Romania incorporates a lot of different imagery, but like Russia it seems chaotic. The color scheme is pleasant and refreshing, and doesn't seem so colorful it lacks authority.